mom Point and Jean Mezrano. Legitime's army began an attack on the outposts early in February. They were repulsed several times, but finally succeeded in carrying them, and a few days later were masters of the city. Legitime's men were so elated over their success that they immediately commenced to pillage the town, Drunken soldiers shot one of the prisoners for some triffing matter and this was a signal for a general outbreak on the part of the soldiers. They rushed at the prisoners, shooting them right and left, the victims begging hard and pitcously for mercy, but their cries were laughed at and the killing went on, quarter being allowed to none. Never before was such a pitlable sight presented. Murdered men lay about huddled in scores. Some were frightfully hacked and mutilated, many of the bloodfrenzied soldiers having run a muck even among the corpses, plunging their swords again and again into the bodies of the slain. Gen. Mezrano tried to stay them, but the soldiers laughed at him and warned him not to interfere if he wished to live. When lack of victims stayed the butchers, they robbed the dead and looted and burned the town. Nearly the whole place, says La Patrie, is in runs. Capt. Frazer thinks the city must have been burned between Feb. 28 and March 1.

FATHER AND MOTHER DEAD.

alous Husband Kills His Wife and Then Commits Suicide,

AUBURN, N. Y., March 3 .- A double tragedy occurred yesterday at No. 3 Fran cis street, where Joseph Ressell lived with years. It is supposed Ressell and his wife had an altercation in the kitchen about a young man who had recently been boarding with them, when Ressell produced a revolver and shot his wife in the region of the heart. The woman ran out of doors and started for a neighbor's, but fell to the ground dead. The neighbors went to the house, where Ressell was found on the kitchen floor, dead, with a bullet in his heart. The children during the shooting escaped from a second story window.

Dyspepsia

Is one of the most prevalent of diseases. Few persons have perfect digestion. One of Ayer's Pills, taken after dinner, or a dose at night before retiring, never fails to give relief in the worst cases, and wonderfully assists the process of nutrition. As a family medicine, Ayer's Pills are unequaled.

James Quinn, 90 Middle st., Hartford, Conn., testifies: "I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."

Lucius Alexander, of Marblehead, Mass., was long a severe sufferer from Dyspepsia, complicated with enlargement of the Liver, most of the time being unable to retain any food in his stomach. Three boxes of Ayer's Pills cured him.
